Bob,

Thanks for your message. I am authorized to accept service on behalf of The Charles Schwab Corporation, Charles Schwab & Co., Inc., Charles Schwab Investment Management, Inc., Charles R. Schwab, Evelyn Dilsaver, Randall W. Merk, and George Pereira. This confirms that the documents you sent on Friday constituted good service on these defendants as of that date.

Schwab Investments is represented by Randy Bodner and Rob Skinner of Ropes and Gray.

As we briefly discussed on Friday, I would like to agree on a response date. I suggest that we set the response date as June 17, which is 60 days from the date of service. That is the amount of time defendants would be given under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(3) if we had formally waived service of process rather than accept service. I also think setting a 60-day period makes sense in light of the procedural considerations generated by the pendency of multiple actions pending in three different district courts. Please let me know if that is acceptable to you.

Regards,

Stuart

Stuart,

Before we talked on Friday, you had left a message that you did not have the authority to accept service. Later, when we talked, you said that in the interim you had learned that your firm had received your clients' authority to accept service. You said you were busy on an emergency, but that you would email me, probably on Saturday, that the documents you received from me in the two emails I sent you on Friday constituted good service.

Please email me no later than 11 a.m. New York time Monday a short unambiguous email that the documents I sent you Friday in the two emails constitutes completed service as if each of your clients had been served effective Friday April 18, 2008. Thank you.

Otherwise, since the process server has had the papers since Friday morning San Francisco time, I will tell the process server to effect service. (If you accept service, as a separate courtesy, I will also have the process server deliver a hard copy set of the papers to your office.)

Second, on the identity of the Ropes & Gray attorney representing Schwab Investments, John M. Loder, Esq. is listed as the R&G contact for Schwab Investments on a recent registration statement. Is he the attorney?

Thank you.

Bob
